CAUSE OF LOCKJAW

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded, the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamthe abodes of wealth and culture are berlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. BETTER THAN PILLS

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberltin's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle at all druggists.
